THE A-TEAM (ATOMIC & AMBITION)

The A-Team are back again for 2012, bringing you a new and improved line up of summer indoor and outdoor camps across the UK. Over the years the camps have grown from 1-off training days with just a few coaches and an Atomic demo tent, to fully sponsored events where UK grass-route athletes get the chance to ski alongside some of both Ambition Racing's full time athletes and Atomic's UK superstars.

All Atomic-Ambition UK Camps have the same aim – to provide fun, professional and high quality training to UK based athletes. The camps are designed to suit a variety of ages and abilities, making them as accessible and open as possible without compromising quality.

NEW FOR 2012

Free Skis! 1 lucky athlete from each week long camp wins a pair of Atomic Race Skis.

Freestyle Fridays. Headline sponsors Atomic will be bringing in sponsored rider Ross Welch and his crew to deliver freestyle sessions each Friday (Freestyle for full day on Hemel Camps).

Cooler Activities. Along with all the Atomic-Ambition UK Camp classics, we've added some new sessions including High Wire Park (Suffolk Camps Only).

Residential Option. All of our camps will now have a residential option, set up specifically for those athletes attending from further afield.

Daily Booking Option. Keeping Atomic-Ambition UK Camps the most accessible open camps on the market.

Quality Control. For 2012 we will take a maximum of 34 athletes per day, split across 4 coaching groups.

Price Incentives. 10% discount for sibling bookings on request.
